Happy
Father's Day!

TO MY STUDIOUS DAD

Sage of Wisdom

The Academic Dad

In books and words, your wisdom shines,
With every lesson, love entwines.
Like Solomon, with mind so bright,
You guide us in the quest for light.

You teach us more than facts and lore,
In every page, your love outpours.
With patient care, you help us grow,
In God's own truth, your heart we know.

With every thought, with every deed,
You plant in us the wisdom's seed.
A father's love in knowledge found,
A guiding star, so profound.
