The Sports Dat

In fields of green, you guide our way,
With strength and love, you teach and play.
Like David bold, with heart so true,
In every game, you see us through.
Your faith's a rock, your love's a shield,
On life's vast court, our hearts you heal.
You cheer us on, both near and far,
Our coach, our guide, our shining star.
With every goal, with every cheer,
Your presence makes our path so clear.
In God's own race, you set the pace,
A father's love, a boundless grace.
