

The Dotted Father

Wilderness Shepherd The Outdoorsy Dad

In forests deep and mountains high,
You teach us of the earth and sky.
Like shepherds old, in fields of green,
You show us where God's hand is seen.

With every hike, with every trail,
Your love for nature will prevail.
You guide us through both night and day,
In God's own world, you lead the way.

With every camp, with every fire,
You lift our hearts, our spirits higher.
A father's love in nature's face,
A guiding light, a warm embrace.
